MAY DAY OBSERVED THROUGHOUT WORLD BY DEMONSTRATIONS

COMMUNISTS MANY COUN-TRIES USE DAY TO SHOW GROWTH OF THEIR CAUSE

(By The Associated Press.) Early May Day demonstrations, tradionally the occasions for radical organizations to let off steam, were held peacefully in most places throughout the world. Minor clashes occurred here and there.

In some cities communist manifestations were forbidden while in others the police held a tight rein on demonstrators.

on demonstrators.

In Paris police quickly suppressed three demonstrations, one in the city and two in the suburbs, and arrested 223 persons on various charges. About 30,000 workers in the main industries were on strike, and no taxicabs were operating. Some fighting developed in the suburb of St. Denis when police clashed with seven communist council men and 40 of their following.

Baker, 19, faced examining trial today in justice court.

Mrs. G. W. Baker was killed on Friday near Avery when she tried to take away a crib of corn and everal articles which had belongted to her estranged husband, dead only a few days.

The youth claimed his father had left his effects to him and that he had mortaged his father's personal property to obtain funds for planting the spring crop.
The mother lived at another farm with Barney Baker, her other son.

Found guilty of attempted murder, the Rev. James Wilson of Mendota, Ill. (right), says he will appeal his case to the Supreme Cont. This photo was made as he was led into court at Ottawa, Ill., by Sheriff Clark to hear the verdict of the jury, which had deliberated nearly twenty-one hours.

NEW COUNTY AGENT NAMED FOR NAVARRO; TO BE HERE FRIDAY

GENTRY GETS ABSENCE LEAVE AND WILL BE SUC-CEEDED BY CALVIN PIGG.

Calvin Pigg of Ellis county, who will succeeded Henry Gentry as county agent, is scheduled to be in Corsicana Friday, and will be at the dairy short course at Arcady Farms Friday.

Plans have been made for a large crowd to be here on this occasion, and large numbers of the farm women clubs will be on hand, in addition to those interested primarily in dairying.

A similar meeting is to be held at Blooming Grove Saturday.

Mr. Gentry has been given a leave of absence by the A. and M. extension department for six months on account of his health, and will likely remain in Corsicana.

Mr. Gentry's leave of absence will begin June 1, and he will aid the new agent during the month of May.

The new agent is the son of Mr.

Dexdale's Secret of Long Wear

"Silk-Sealing" is a new, exclusive Dexdale process that imparts greater beauty and longer than normal wear to sheer silk hosiery.

Too, Dexdale colors are sharper, clearer-the texture is more even, the sheen more softly lustrous. "Silk-Sealing" does away forever with the old idea that it is impossible to combine both loveliness and wear in fine silk hosiery.

To say nothing of the difference it will make $i\mathbf{n}$ your annual hosiery budget.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—(P)— Renewed assurances of Senator Borah's sympathetic attitude to-ward the London naval treaty toward the London naval treaty to-day bolstered the expectation of the administration that consideration of the pact by the senae would be expedited and ratification ensue. President Hoover was engaged in the preparation of a special mes-sage or letter of transmittal to ac-company the treaty when he dis-patches it to capitol hill. As soon the communication is completed, the pact will be laid before the senate.

As chairman of the powerful foreign relations committee, Borah foreign relations committee, Borah holds a position of great strategic importance in the senate contest over ratification. His approval of the pact, which is still of a confidential nature, is regarded by those close to the president as a notable preliminary victory.

"I seek to have it considered and ressed upon by the committee as seedily as the importance of the permit," Senator isorah said. "It is an important treaty and should have careful and deliberate consideration, but I do not assume that there will be any attempt at delay. graduating class of the State Home was presented in a melodramatic episode in which he used a plano to produce unusual tone pictures. He was followed by Weldon Bryant, another State Home boy, who gave two well-received humorous selections.

Beauford H. Jester, member of the board of regents of the University of Texas, presented a number of the highlights of Texas history under the flags of France, Spain, Mexico, the state emblem, the Confederacy and the United States.

The first flag to fly over Texas was that of Louis XIV, as a result of LaSalle's ill-fated expedition which finally landed in Matagorda Bay in 1864. The French were followed in a very few years by Spain, and in 1708 the Mission Alamo had been moved from the Rio Grande to San Antonio; and by 1718 missions had been established at Victoria, Nacogdoches. San Augustine and Goliad. Texas was longer under the flag of Spain than any other, from 1687 to 1814. It was during this time that Jean LaFite, noted pirate, held sway with his crew on Galvoston Island. Some Early History

In 1824 Mexico revolted from Spanish rule, and Texas and Coahuila were united as a single territory. Moses Austin had established San Felipe de Austin, and the white colonization was well under way. In 1830, Stephen F. Austin went to Mexico City to ask for the separate state of Texas and the white colonization was well under way. In 1830, Stephen F. EVANGELIST HAM HEARD BY LARGE AUDIENCE; NUMBER RESPOND TO APPEAL

"What will you do with Jesus" was the basis for a stirring message delivered Wednesday evening by Dr. Mordecai Fowler Ham to a large audience at the large cotton warehouse located at the corner of Sixth avenue and Eighth street. The evangelist concluded the sernion with a prolonged evangelistic appeal to which a number responded.

Guests at the Wednesday evening service included employees of the Cotton Mill, Magnolia Refinery, American Well and Prospecting company, Cen-Tex Oil company, Simms Oil company, Corsicana Steam Laundry, farmers, garage and filling station employees, and residents in the Mildred community.

BAZETTE, April 30.—(SPL).—Sunday morning, April 27, at 9 o'clock, the children, grandchildren and great-grandchild of Mrs. J. H. McBride gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hardaway to celebrate her 60th birthday with a city for the work of the evangelist.

Nothing can be done with Jesus, the speaker declared, and that the devil had been trying to do away with Him from time immemorial. The speaker then launched into lengthy discussion of the trials and titibulations of the prophets, Christians and the Bible.

Appeal Is Voiced. Appeal Is Voiced.
The evangelist concluded with a stirring appeal for people to accept Christ immediately, declaring that procrastination would avail nothing, and that the road to hell was paved with good intentions. What church you join is secondary to the decision for Jesus, he declared.
A number of people responded to be appeal for prayer and remained for a prayer session with the evangelist at the conclusion of the service.

Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of all scripture, prophecy and law the evangelist declared.

All Must Decide.

In the evangelistic sermon based on the above discussion, the minister declared that all must decide what to do with Jesus, and that was the one issue confronting the world. There would be noticed what to do with Jesus, and the stated.

This one decision determines the destiny of the individual, for when God decides on the disposition of the individual He will first find out what that person did for Jesus, the evangelist declared.

The hope and joy of the individual depends on this decision, there is no hope for man outside Jesus, and the eternal life of every person depends on the aceptance and rejection of the Lord, Rev. Ham declared.

Bi-District Tennis

TEAGUE, April 29.—(Spl.)—
Clara Lane, winner of county and district meets last year in tennis singles, winner of county and district again this year, scored a signal victory again Saturday morning when she won the bi-district over Sara Lee Morton of the Corsicana State Orphans' Home. The sets were 6-1, 6-2 in favor of Lane. This makes Lane one of the 13 who are eligible to play at the state meet May 1, 2 and 3.

This is the first year that the bi-district division has been made. Lane lost two games at the county meet this year, give games in three matches at the district, meet, and signoloous American Cotton. The United States must sell ap-

Who Have Tried It.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS.
Plenty of "new" ideas are being broadcast these days. Few of them are really new, or great and workable. Onc, however, which still seems new to most men's way of thinking, really came into the world with Jesus; and has been slowly seeping into the consciousness and practice of the race.

This is the idea that true greatness is derived, not from power or from wealth. but from service to one's fellow men. Of Himself Josus said, in dramatic reversal of all existing standards of preeminence, that "The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His How upsetting that notion is, and how completely contrary to prevail. In gp ractices, a moment's thought makes clear. It establishes a standard and that is diametrically opposed.

Talks of Prison System

Some of the speaker's remarks intimated that he may be a candidate for the governorship in the approaching primaries, with particular reference to the penitentiary system of Texas, which is being discussed continually in political circles. He said he would like to discuss the penitentiary system of Texas and other things but his time was limited. He referred to the large farms of the penitentiary system being rich and fertile. He said his idea was for the hardened criminals and the young prisoners to be separated; the establishment of canning factories, etc., to care missioners counday morning.
